Traditional Kuwaiti home was more than just a place to live. It was the heart of family life. In the past, families lived in large, connected homes, often under one roof with grandparents, parents, and children. These houses were designed to bond family members with each other, a value that still strongly shapes Kuwaiti life today.

At the center of every traditional home was a large courtyard where family members would gather to talk, share meals, and celebrate special events. These homes were spacious and open, allowing them to stay happily connected. Today, most homes do not have courtyards, but the feeling of being close is still present. Respect for elders, kindness, and a spirit of hospitality are values Kuwaitis still practice today. Guests are always welcomed with Arabic coffee, dates, and warm smiles, which shows the importance of hospitality in everyday life.

Each family member had a clear role, and everyone supported one another. Men protected their families and worked to provide for their needs, while women managed the home with care. Boys worked with their fathers, and girls helped their mothers at home. These traditions taught children important values such as wisdom, respect, and cooperation. In fact, these values still guide Kuwaiti families today.

The grandparents held the family together with their love and wisdom, guiding the younger generation with gentle hearts and strong values.

Children also gathered around their grandparents to enjoy ghatawi, traditional riddles. Boys played marbles, known as teyal, while girls enjoyed playing haila , a hopping game. However, the children's favorite activity of all was playing tag , seda ma'seda, a joyful game that filled the courtyard with laughter.

In short, the traditional Kuwaiti home reflected a united spirit of respect and love, just as the Kuwaiti culture continues to do today.

My dream home would be a modern and comfortable place where I feel safe and happy. It would be located in a quiet neighborhood surrounded by trees, with fresh air and plenty of space. The house itself would be large but not too big, with wide windows that let in natural sunlight. I imagine it painted in light colors to give it a warm and peaceful feeling.

Inside, my dream home would have a spacious living room for family gatherings and a cozy library filled with books where I could spend hours reading. The kitchen would be modern and well-equipped, perfect for cooking and enjoying meals together. Each bedroom would be designed to show the personality of the person living in it, with comfortable beds and enough space to feel relaxed.

From My First Day Until Today

من يومي الأول إلى اليوم

I still remember my first day at primary school. I was shy and quiet. I was nervous, I did not know where to go or what to do. However, my teacher welcomed me warmly, and I began to learn new things. At that time, I did not use to have many responsibilities. We used to draw pictures, sing songs, and play most of the time.

Now, I am in Grade 7. My life at school has changed a lot. I have become more responsible, and my time is more organized. I now write short reports, take part in group projects, and have discussions. I also have to study regularly for exams and review lessons on my own. In addition, I help my classmates and respect their ideas, even if they are different from mine. They sometimes ask me for help, and I am always happy to support them. I am more confident now and even cheer others who go through hard times. I have learned that doing your best is more important than being perfect.

I have also learned to value myself. I do not compare myself to others. Instead, I try to be better than I was yesterday. When I make a mistake, I think, learn, and try again. Every challenge is a chance to improve.

Finally, I believe that if I were not responsible, I would not feel so proud of myself. I work hard and support my friends. I truly enjoy learning because school teaches us how to grow as kind, respectful people.

At school, my main responsibilities are to attend classes on time, complete my homework, and study well to achieve good results. I must also respect my teachers and classmates, follow school rules, and keep my classroom and school clean. Another responsibility is to participate in school activities, group projects, and discussions, which helps me learn teamwork and cooperation. By doing these things, I can be a responsible student and a good role model for others.

On the other hand, there are things I should not do at school. I must not be late to class, disturb others while learning, or ignore my homework and assignments. I should not be rude to teachers or classmates, and I must avoid fighting, cheating, or damaging school property. It is also important not to waste time or distract others from their studies. By avoiding these behaviors, I can maintain a positive learning environment for myself and for everyone around me.

في المدرسة، مسؤولياتي هي أن أحضر الحصص في وقتها، وأكتب واجباتي، وأذاكر جيدًا حتى أنجح. يجب أن أحترم معلمي وزملائي، وأتبع قوانين المدرسة، وأحافظ على نظافة الصف والمدرسة. كما أشارك في الأنشطة المدرسية والمشاريع مع زملائي، وهذا يساعدني على التعاون والعمل مع الآخرين. عندما أقوم بهذه الأشياء أكون طالبًا مسؤولًا وأعطي مثالًا جيدًا لغيري. لكن هناك أيضًا أمور يجب أن لا أفعلها. لا يجب أن أتأخر عن الحصص أو أزعج الآخرين أثناء الدرس أو أترك واجباتي من دون حل. ولا يجب أن أكون غير مهذب مع المعلمين أو الزملاء، أو أتشاجر أو أغش أو أفسد ممتلكات المدرسة. من المهم أيضًا أن لا أضيع الوقت أو أشتت انتباه زملائي. عندما أتجنب هذه التصرفات أساعد في جعل المدرسة مكانًا جيدًا للتعلم.
